

COMPANIONS ON OUR JOURNEY OF FAITH AND COMMITMENT

It is never easy to do things alone. Being with a companion can make a trip more enjoyable or a difficult task simpler. Having other people to guide us can lessen our fears and strengthen flagging resolve. Those who model an action allow us to see first hand the method to success.

Role models are vital to faith growth. Children are often blessed with parents, grandparents, godparents and others who give witness to the Christian life. Adults who did not have models earlier in their life will find partners within the Catholic community who are willing to share their experience.

Becoming Part of a Christian, Believing Community

The search for meaning in our lives is a common thread that unites all people. We want to understand where we came from and who we are. The spiritual search for understanding, by the prompting of God's Spirit, often leads to a church which invites us to develop a relationship with the God who created us.

As Catholics, we develop a faith community that supports and encourages one another as we grow in our love of God and each other.

The Church welcomes everyone who is on the spiritual journey. Upon hearing the mystery of Christ proclaimed, adults can freely enter the way of faith and conversion as God's Spirit opens their hearts.

As Catholics, we believe in Jesus Christ, who came to earth and died for our sins. Through Jesus we have been redeemed. Through the Bible, especially the Gospels, and the traditions of the Roman Catholic Church, we come to a greater knowledge of Him.

Reception of Previously Baptized Adults

Adults who have already been baptized Christian or baptized Catholic but who did not receive the other sacraments of Initiation also participate in the RCIA process. They will receive doctrinal and spiritual preparation so that they may develop a deeper understanding of the Catholic faith and receive the sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation.
