Session Format

- a. Families gather in Johnson Hall for Whole Group Prayer and Activity
- b. Children leave for classrooms with catechists
- c. Adults stay for presentation by a South Shore priest
- d. Parents go to school classrooms to retrieve children

At Home Materials – Families will complete a chapter of the textbook with their student/s during the off weeks.

Safe Environment Presentation for Children – The Archdiocese and US Catholic Bishops require the grade level program Circles of Grace for all children participating in Religious Education classes. The prescribed material will be taught during the child classroom session on January 25. Parents will complete a follow-up activity at home. Parents of absent students must complete the work at home and return it to the Director. Families who want to opt out (not attend on Jan. 25 but complete material at home) must request and sign the Opt – Out form and return work to Director.

This schedule is subject to change due to unforeseen circumstances. If changes occur, families will receive an email explaining the situation.*
