Session Format

- a. Families gather in Johnson Hall for Family Prayer and Activity (6p – 6:25p)
- b. Children go to classrooms and parents go to Pope John Paul II room for priest presentation (6:30p – 7:30p)
- c. Parents go to school classrooms to retrieve children

At Home Materials – Families will complete a chapter of the textbook with their student/s during the off weeks.

Safe Environment Presentation for Children – The Archdiocese and US Catholic Bishops require the grade level program Circles of Grace for all children participating in Religious Education classes. Catechists teach the prescribed material during the child classroom session on February 28. Parents will complete a follow-up activity at home and return a verification form with signature. Parents of absent students will receive the lesson plan to complete all of the work at home and return verification form on the date given.

This schedule is subject to change due to unforeseen circumstances. If changes occur, families will receive an email explaining the situation.*
